12. On or within 90 days prior to the Petition Date (the "Preference Period"), one or more of the Debtors made one or more transfers to or for the benefit of the Defendant as set forth on Exhibit "A" annexed hereto.

13. Exhibit "A" reflects the Debtors' present knowledge of the transfers made to the Defendant by the Debtors during the Preference Period. During the course of this proceeding, the Debtors may learn (through discovery or otherwise) of additional transfers made by the Debtors to the Defendant during the Preference Period. The Debtors are seeking to avoid and recover all such transfers, whether such transfers presently are reflected on Exhibit "A" or not. Collectively, all transfers made by the Debtors of an interest of the Debtors' property to or for the benefit of the Defendant during the Preference Period (whether such transfers presently are reflected in Exhibit "A" hereto or not) are referred to herein as the "Transfers."

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(Avoidance and Recovery of Preferential Transfers Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 547(b), 550(a) and 551)

17. The Debtors repeat and reallege paragraphs "1" through "15" hereof as if fully set forth herein.

18. The Transfers were made within 90 days prior to the Petition Date.

19. The Transfers were transfers of an interest of the Debtors in property.

20. The Transfers were made to or for the benefit of the Defendant, a creditor of the Debtor.

21. The Transfers were made for or on account of antecedent debts owed to the Defendant by the Debtors before such Transfers were made.

22. Section 547(f) of the Bankruptcy Code states, in relevant part, that "[f]or the purposes of this section, the debtor is presumed to have been insolvent on and during the 90 days immediately preceding the date of the filing of the petition." 11 U.S.C. § 547(f).

23. The Transfers were made while the Debtors were insolvent.

24. The Transfers enabled the Defendant to receive more than the Defendant would receive if (i) the Debtors cases were cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) the Transfers had not been made, and (iii) the Defendant received payment on account of the debt paid by the Transfers to the extent provided by the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

25. The Transfers constitute preferential transfers which should be avoided as preferences pursuant to section 547 of the Bankruptcy Code, and are recoverable from the Defendant, the (a) initial transferee of the Transfers, (b) the entity for whose benefit the Transfers were made, or (c) the immediate or mediate transferee of an initial transferee, pursuant to section 550 of the Bankruptcy Code.

27. As of ninety (90) days prior to the Petition Date, and at all relevant times prior to and including the Petition Date, the Defendant was a creditor of one or more of the Debtors. During the Preference Period, the Defendant held a claim against one or more of the Debtors.

28. Section 553(c) of the Bankruptcy Code states, in relevant part, that "[f]or the purposes of this section, the debtor is presumed to have been insolvent on and during the 90 days immediately preceding the date of the filing of the petition." 11 U.S.C. § 553(c).

29. The Defendant improved its position through one or more of the Transfers because the amount of the insufficiency on the date of each setoff was less than the insufficiency on the later of ninety (90) days prior to the Petition Date and the first date during the Preference Period on which there was an insufficiency. For the purposes of this Cause of Action, insufficiency means the amount by which any claims asserted by the Defendant against one or more of the Debtors exceeded any mutual debt owing to one or more of the Debtors by the Defendant.

30. The safe harbor provisions of the Bankruptcy Code do not apply to the Transfers.

31. Pursuant to section 553(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Defendant is liable for the amount by which one or more of the Transfers enabled it to improve its credit position with respect to one or more of the Debtors during the Preference Period.

32. The Transfers are avoidable as impermissible improvements in position pursuant to section 553(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and accordingly, pursuant to section 550(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors are entitled to recover from the Defendant the value of the Transfers for the benefit of the Debtors' estates.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION (Disallowance of Claims Under 11

37. Pursuant to section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, any and all claims of Defendant and/or its assignee, against the Debtors' estates must be disallowed until such time as Defendant pays to the Debtors all amounts sought for the recovery of the Transfers.

38. Pursuant to section 502(j) of the Bankruptcy Code, any and all previously allowed claims of the Defendant and/or its assignee against the Debtors' estates must be disallowed until such time as the Defendant pays to the Debtors all amounts sought for the recovery of the Transfers.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, the Debtors respectfully request the following relief:

A. That the Transfers be avoided;

B. That judgment be entered in favor of the Debtors and against the Defendant, in an amount at least $1,633,488.21 (plus such additional transfer amounts that the Debtors learn, through discover or otherwise, were made by the Debtors to the Defendant during the Preference Period), plus interest at the legal rate from the date of the Transfers, together with all costs of this action;

C. That any and all claims of the Defendant against the Debtors' estates be disallowed pursuant to sections 502(d) and 502(j) of the Bankruptcy Code; and
